TERMS TO SUIT

This Chase Leather Upholstering Is Guaranteed

There is a lot of imitation leather that resembles the genuine leather in appearance, but the minute you touch it you know its real character. Now this imitation leather not only looks like leather, feels like leather, but also wears like leather, not as long as the genuine of course. We don't want to claim that, but we can and do claim, in fact guarantee it to wear about two-thirds as long as the genuine.

Built to Last

This suite is constructed in a first class workmanlike manner by skilled mechanics, and is made to last a lifetime, each piece is strongly built and braced in very satisfactory manner after the most approved style of mission furniture building.

Why Is This Suite Priced at $16.75?

The American people are too keen to accept any advertising statement without any explanation. They want to know the "why" of everything, and we are glad to explain. We are not posing as public benefactors, and though this suite means a big saving in money to anyone that takes advantage of the offer, we too benefit by this sale. Our benefit comes from doing a large volume of business, even though the percentage of profit is small. Doing a large volume of business means buying in larger quantities and securing extra price concessions from the manufacturers.

Federation of Labor Opens Big Convention

San Francisco, Nov. 8.—Delegates representing 2,000,000 organized laboring men in the United States, were here today at the opening session of the annual convention of the Federation of Labor.

The day's program included addresses of welcome by Governor Johnson of California, and Mayor Ralph of San Francisco.

The new steamer Lafayette of the French Line is due at New York today on her maiden trip.

Clitus King Expects State's Prison Term As Result

the nervousness which characterized him when he arrived at the jail Friday night. On that evening his nerves were badly shattered but he said this morning that he felt better than he had in two months.

His appearance was changed considerably, too, by reason of the shave which deprived him of his beard and mustache. A stranger who saw him Friday night with the flowing facial adornments would hardly recognize him today.

Since he has been in jail King has had several talks with his counsel, Attorney Gray. Mrs. King saw her husband yesterday for the first time since he surrendered himself. They had a long talk, during which Mrs. King bore up very bravely.

All efforts so far to induce the lawyer to discuss his involved financial affairs have failed. He declares he will make no statement along those lines until he goes before the criminal superior court in December. If it ends at present to do, he will probably ask for leniency in order that he may have opportunity to reimburse those who have lost money by his wrongdoings.

Attorney Charles S. Canfield, a member of the grievance committee of the Fairfield County Bar, stated today that the petition brought in the civil superior court calling upon King to appear and show cause why he should not be disbarred, is a preferred case upon the present docket. It will be reached as soon as the pending suits have been heard.

Judge William H. Williams will preside at the December term of the criminal superior court in which King expects to plead.

When reached by telephone late this afternoon Attorney Gray said he did not know whether he would appear before Judge Case tomorrow, to ask bonds for King. "I saw in the paper," said Attorney Gray, "that State's Attorney Cummings claimed he could fix bail. I tried to get in touch with him but found he had gone to New York. So far as I know at present King's plan is to wait quietly either in jail or out on bonds, until his case is reached in the criminal court. Then he will plead guilty."

held from his late residence, 527 Austin street, at 8:30 this morning, and a half hour later from Sacred Heart church, where Rev. Richard F. Moore conducted the solemn high mass of requiem, assisted by Rev. Thomas J. Mooney as deacon and Rev. Matthew Judge as subdeacon. Schmidt's requiem mass was sung by Mrs. John Casserly and Mrs. R. J. Witterwill. After the mass, Mrs. Casserly sang "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say." The services were attended by an unusually large number of friends of the deceased and the floral tributes were numerous and beautiful. The bearers were: William Dargan, John Foley, C. F. Nowell, T. J. Carroll, Thomas Cuesnell and Frank Bradstreet. A delegation from the Woodmen of the World attended the funeral. Rev. Father Judge read the burial service at the grave in St. Michael's cemetery.

Documentary Evidence is Admitted After Sharp Legal Arguments.

New York, Nov. 8.—In the trial of the 11 former directors of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad for attempting to monopolize railroad traffic in New England today, the government spent the greater part of the morning session in reading into the record further documentary testimony which was designed to tie up the tag ends of the government's case up to 1908. This chiefly consisted of the New Haven board of directors which, however, did not get before the jury without a protest.

Judge Hunt ruled that the excerpts offered by the government might be read, adding that the rest of the minutes might be put in by the defense if it so desired.

The government then called Chester W. Chapin, who controlled the Central New England railroad, to tell what he knew of the alleged efforts of the New Haven to harass that road and of its subsequent acquisition by the New Haven in 1904.

Forty persons were injured when a wooden stand holding 200 persons at a high school football game at Hartford, Conn., collapsed.

Nujol

REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.

A PURE WHITE MINERAL OIL

Why Your Doctor Prescribes Nujol for Constipation

LAXATIVES can very easily do a great deal of harm.

Nujol can do no harm, because it is not absorbed into the system, but acts simply as a mechanical lubricant.

Laxatives give only a temporary relief, and by their after-effects aggravate the very condition they are meant to cure.

Nujol is odorless and tasteless, absolutely neutral, and is not digested or absorbed into the system. It acts merely as a mechanical lubricant.

Nujol is not a drug. Its use will not give quick, temporary relief. But Nujol is a genuine remedy in that it relieves constipation in the most natural way by lubricating the lining of the intestines, softening the intestinal contents, and thus promoting healthy and normal bowel activity.

Write for "The Rational Treatment of Constipation," an informative treatise on constipation. If you cannot get Nujol from your druggist, we will send a pint bottle prepaid to any point in the United States on receipt of 75c—money order or stamps.
